ABSTRACT

PT. Indomarco Adi Prima is a company founded in 1964 by Sudono Salim, a subsidiary of the Salim Group. Currently, the company is owned by his son, Anthony Salim, one of the richest people in the world in 2021. PT. Indomarco Adi Prima is one of the largest distributor companies in Indonesia and is spread throughout all major cities in Indonesia. PT. Indomarco provides various types of food and drinks as well as household necessities which can be obtained in supermarkets, shops and malls. Of course, PT. Indomarco Adi Prima has many products that will be marketed, but PT. Indomarco Adi Prima still uses conventional systems for managing product data, transactions, writing notes and sales reports. The aim of this final project is to implement an outgoing goods and incoming goods processing system at PT. Indomarco Adi Prima Ngawi to manage product data, incoming goods reports, outgoing goods reports which can be called sales reports. The method used in this research is a case study type by analyzing the conditions and activities at PT. Indomarco Adi Prima. The database was created with SQL Yog and the result of this research is a web-based system that can help manage the outgoing goods and incoming goods processes that occur at PT. Indomarco Adi Prima Ngawi.

Keywords: sales, products, goods.*