Dear Authors,

The results of initial screening (plagiarism check) have been uploaded into your account, revise it accordingly. Journey's policy concerning plagiarism is that the similarity of the manuscript content must not be more than 15%. If your manuscript is below that maximum requirement, you can pass it on.

If you decide not to change your manuscript due to below 15%, just simply reupload your former manuscript into the revision menu.

Check your submission progress via:

<http://ejournal.budiutomomalang.ac.id/index.php/journey/login>

Please submit your revision no more than 4 days after receiving this notification.

Dear Editor-in-Chief of Journey

Re: Manuscript Revision

Attached is the revised version of our manuscript with the following details:

1. The format has been adjusted as requested by the Journey template.
2. Two (2) citations have been included from Journey (Journal of English Language and Pedagogy)
3. The references used the Mendeley application and APA style format
4. Some additional information has been stated to show the benefits and novelty displayed at the end of the Introduction Part
5. Provide some new findings and insights
6. Article contributions have been stated in the conclusion
7. The structure of the abstract has been adjusted
8. Sampling technique has been stated, research instrument, and data analysis
9. The implications of findings have been stated
10. The items of instrument used Bahasa Indonesia to make it clear for SHS students in interpreting the meaning, but we provided the translation in the students' responses
11. The unnecessary table (Table 4) has been deleted
12. The limitation of the study has been stated as requested.

Thank you and best regards,
